

Queen of Peace Knights of Columbus presents

a Lenten Lecture by Daniel P. Quinn

Award Winning Author, Playwright, & Film Producer on the Passion of Christ

Daniel was Co-Director of the Oberammergau, the Passion Play that ran for many years in Union City, from 1996 - 1998 with Eric Hafen, which featured the casting of a black Jesus, and was Rabbi approved. The original play was staged in German before World War 1 in Hudson County and in English after.

All are Welcome to Attend

Wednesday, March 20 - 7:30pm at the Columbian Club Hall 194 River Road, North Arlington

Cake, Coffee, & Refreshments will be served

Daniel P Quinn is a graduate of Ramapo College of NJ; MA in Performing Arts from The American University In Washington, DC.

His books include: American Phantasmagoria (Lulu.com) 3 plays from "Short Plays to Long Remember" with comments by Olympia Dukakis, Newark, Italy and me (Lulu.com) which got 5 stars on Amazon.com in PRIMO magazine. His other books on AuthorHouse.com include "Exits + Entrances, 25 years off-Broadway (The Montclair Times) and "organized labor" that got 4 stars with a review by Malachy McCourt, "organized labor: collected poems" and "Exits and Entrances: 25 years Off-Broadway, Opera, and Beyond". Daniel P Quinn has spoken at Rutgers University, John Jay College/CUNY; SUNY/Brockport, Brooklyn College, Morris and the Paterson Museum's Lambert Castle. Daniel P Quinn received awards and grants from The Irish Institute, The New York Times Company Foundation, Axe-Houghton Foundation, The New York State Council on the Arts, The Short Play Festival, Catholic Charities, Essex County College, and Home Box Office. He founded ArtsPRunlimited, Inc. regional libraries and an Adjudicator at SUNY/Brockport. He has been a guest Author at many regional libraries and in Italy and Ireland.